BLANK Certificates for receiving the State Bounty on Wheat and Corn, printed and for sale by

SMITH & FENNO.

STATE OF MAINE.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled.

RESPECTFULLY represent the undersigned, your petitioners, that the public interest would be much promoted by the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at Great-works Falls (so called) where there are large and increasing milling establishments and villages on each side of the river. And they further represent that the erection of a bridge over the Penobscot river at that place would greatly convenience the inhabitants at the villages of Upper and Lower Stillwater, and the travelling public generally, who have occasion to travel up and down the Penobscot river, by the State or Military roads, and that the prospect of an ultimately free communication through the great thoroughfare from Bangor to Houlton is of the highest importance to the interests of the county and the State, and that the erection of a free bridge over the Penobscot river on that route, during the present hapoverished and distressed condition of the country, is utterly hopeless.

Wherefore your petitioners respectfully petition for an Act of Incorporation to erect a bridge over the Penobscot river, at said Great-works Falls between Orono and Bradley with the right to take toll, at such rates as you in your wisdom may deem reasonable, until the tolls received shall equal the first cost of the bridge, interest on the same and expenses of repair, after which the bridge shall become a free bridge, with such other provisions as may be deemed suitable and necessary. And as in duty bound will ever pray.

NATH'L TRAFT, and 37 others.

STATE OF MAINE.

In House of Representatives, March [illegible] 1838.

On the Petition aforesaid, Ordered, that the Petitioners cause an attested copy of this Order, with this order thereon, to be published in the Eastern Argus, a paper published at Portland, and the Whig and Courier, a paper published at Bangor, thirty days at least before the first Monday of the next [illegible] session of this Legislature, that [illegible] may then appear [illegible] Read and accepted.

Sent up for concurrence.

REMOVAL.

☞ The Office of the WHIG and COURIER has been removed to the Rooms over the Store of Messrs. Smith & Fenno, a few doors below the former stand. Entrance No. 13, West Market Place.

THE ELECTIONS.

ONE ELECTION. The Columbus Journal gives full returns from thirty-three counties, and [illegible] majorities from most of the remaining counties in the State. In thirty-three counties the vote stands

	1838.	1836.
Vance,	55,209	52,045
[illegible],	51,781	Baldwin, 40,361

"The vote thus far shows an increase upon that of 1836, of 13,164; of which Shannon has 9,930, and Vance 3,234. More than two hundred thousand voters have been polled! Besides the counties given in another column, the Statesman claims to have received reported majorities for Shannon, amounting in the aggregate to 9,000, and has similar majorities for Vance, amounting to about 4,000. We have ourselves taken no account of reported majorities, and cannot speak as to the correctness of the Statesman returns."

In the Legislature, on joint ballot, the Loco Focos will have a majority of three or four, last year the Whigs had a majority of thirteen or fourteen.

The Senate consists of thirty-six members, one-half of whom are chosen each year. Last year there was a Whig majority of four. This year there is a tie, there being eighteen Whigs, and eighteen Loco Focos.

The House consists of seventy-two members. All the districts but one are heard from, and the result is thirty-four Whigs, and thirty-seven Loco Focos. The remaining district has probably elected a Loco Foco. The House will then stand thirty-four Whigs, and thirty eight Loco Focos.

HOW STANDS THE CASE?

When we review the field where the battle has but just been fought, it will be seen that the Whigs are far from having any good reason to despair of the republic. On the contrary, they have every thing to encourage them. Let their course then be onward; their cause is good, and will prevail, if they but continue of firm hearts, and flag not in their exertions. The Loco Focos may idly boast of "re-actions," in order to gull their followers, but facts will not sustain them in the position they have taken. Let us look at the States where elections have recently taken place, and see how we stand.

In Illinois, we have gained two members of Congress, and the Legislature, and the tories have re-elected their Governor, with a loss of 2,100 votes. We have gained the complete ascendancy in Indiana, and reduced the tory majority in Missouri to less than half what it was before. We stand better in Virginia than we ever did. In South Carolina, we have lost one member of Congress. In Maryland, we have secured a majority in the Legislature, and shall elect a Whig Senator to Congress, though we have lost our Whig Governor, through the divisions of the Whigs. We have also gained a Whig Mayor, and majorities in both boards of the Council, of Baltimore, by an increased majority, sufficient to have elected our Governor.

In Pennsylvania, we have gained greatly in the popular vote, and in the number of members to the Legislature; and though we have lost our Governor, we have saved a Senator to Congress, which is worth much more. In New Jersey, we have elected our members to Congress, and a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and thus secured the election of a Whig Governor and a Whig United States Senator. In Georgia, the Whigs have achieved a glorious victory. A Whig Governor, an entire Whig delegation to Congress, and a Whig majority in both branches of the Legislature.

In Ohio, we must admit that the Locos have gained, in consequence of divisions among our own friends, and the frauds practiced by our opponents. Here the Whigs have lost their Governor, four members to Congress, and perhaps the Legislature. But throughout the Union, with this one exception, the Whigs have had an immense gain.

The Boston Atlas attributes the withdrawal of the application of Texas for admission into the Union, to the fact, that a loan could not be negotiated for the purpose of paying the cost of the late war, whilst the question was pending. That is, the capitalists were unwilling to risk their money, unless Texas was likely to remain an independent State.

THE RAINS. The rains for the last week have [illegible] the streams, that there is a prospect of getting down, (in season to have them sawed and sent off to market,) a great many of the logs [illegible] stopped in consequence of the drouth in the early part of the summer. This will [illegible] make business good for a while, at least.

SOMETHING [illegible] August [illegible] nothing [illegible]

[illegible] OFFICERS. Men who are willing [illegible] what they eat, drink and [illegible] and their families in laying up [illegible]

[illegible] SQUARE. The lawn on Well street, [illegible] recently rendered vacant by the fire [illegible] $1,000, [illegible] a public square. The subject is [illegible] City Council.

☞ A most brutal assault was committed a few evenings since by a soldier named Nathan Hogan, on a female in St. Andrews. The ruffian knocked her down twice and otherwise injured her by blows, having torn her habliments literally to tatters, before he was frightened from the victim of his intended destruction by the appearance of several persons whom her screams had drawn to the place. He has been committed for trial.

☞ An attempt was made to elect a Senator to Congress by the Legislature of Vermont on Friday last. The candidates were S. S. Phelps, Timothy Pollet and Heman Allen, Whigs, and John Kellogg, Locofoco. No choice being effected on the fifth trial, further ballotings were postponed till Tuesday.

The Quebec Herald of the 16th inst. has the following paragraph;

What does this mean? The Populiste of Friday last, states that the habitans of the Parish of St. Pierre, are sending their wives and children to a place of safety in expectation of a revolt being close at hand.

In addition to the above, we notice by the papers that the 93d Highlanders are ordered from Halifax to Canada.

"New Jersey Erect." Bangor Democrat.

That's a fact. Certain you say true.

☞ The Loco Focos organs have made a great noise for a week or two past, in crying "re-action" over the result of the election in several of the States, and are declaring that "the sober, second thoughts of the people" are for sustaining the policy of the administration. On the course these presses are taking, the New York American remarks:

"We presume, that if investigation could be had into the facts connected with this re-action, it would generally be found the result of fraud and illegality, either in receiving or suppressing votes.

"Taking New Jersey as an example, it can scarcely be a matter of doubt, to any one who has observed what has occurred there, that the Whig tickets in that State would have been carried by large majorities if only fair play could have been secured.

"As it is, we conclude that the Whig members of Congress must receive the certificates of election, for among numerous frauds, are some so bald and so bold particularly in Cumberland and Middlesex, (South Amboy,) that no returning officers, acting under oath, and with a conscientious sense of duty, can admit returns founded upon such gross illegality.

"But, aside from this, it is, we repeat, almost wholly owing to unlawful votes, that the Whigs even appear to have lost strength, or that the Loco Focos enjoy the delusive hopes of triumph. Opinion sound, deliberate, sober opinion—is now, as it was last year, as it must ever be opposed to the destructive and disorganizing policy of the party in power. By banding together unscrupulous men, and causing them to swear in their votes, this opinion may be overpowered; but whenever honest opinion can be heard, and made to prevail, it must re-assert its voice, and cover its opponents with added infamy. Meanwhile, it is a duty which the Whigs of New Jersey owe to themselves and their cause, to take measures for the elucidation of the frauds committed in that State. Let these, and the evidence on which the allegation of fraud rests, be made public, so that even adversaries, if at all fair-minded, shall be convinced, and made ashamed, of the unscrupulous means resorted to by their party.

"Let the circumstances connected with the illegalities practised in Warren county, in Cumberland, in Middlesex, and in Bergen, be published from one end of the continent to the other; that the real people may see what desperate means a desperate party will employ, and that all may understand the nature and quality of the much vaunted 'RE-ACTION.'"

☞ Our friend Severance never says too much upon any subject, and whatever he has to say is always well said. This is the fact in regard to the following paragraph from his last Journal.

THE SURVEY.

Six weeks ago the Loco Foco papers in this State sounded the alarm that Gov. Kent was going to involve the country in a war! Now, the same papers, after trying in vain to induce the British authorities to oppose the survey, are vilely venting their spleen against the Governor, because he was so civil as to notify Governor Harvey of the contemplated survey. These Tory presses, which have succeeded with the aid of British gold in putting down a patriotic administration of the State, are extremely mortified that the survey should go on, because they see that after it is effected, the President will have no excuse, and the British Government will have no excuse, for further procrastination, and this is what alarms the party which offered to "sell out for an ample indemnity."

It is most fortunate for the State, that the Whigs obtained the power long enough to run this line through. But the Argus, and Eastern Democrat, if we understand them, say it is not only the duty of Gov. Kent to survey the line, but to locate it, establish it, and assume jurisdiction this side of it. They mean this, or they mean nothing. Very well: the commissioners must survey it first, and this they are now doing, and it is more than they can complete this year. Let Mr. Fairfield finish and defend it. Let Mr. Van Buren carry the Treaty into effect. The National authorities alone have the power to do it. Gov. Kent has gone to the extent of his authority. He has done his duty. We don't expect these hireling presses to give him any credit for it, but they ought to have some little regard for the interest and character of the State. Kennebec Journal.

Mormon Difficulties. We did suppose that this war alike disgraceful to all parties concerned, was at an end; but the present prospects are otherwise. We learn by a gentleman who came passenger in the steamboat Hanover, on Saturday, that when at the Mormon town above the mouth of Grand river, he saw about two hundred of the Mormons armed and prepared for conflict. About eighty wagons, containing a number of families, had arrived at the village. This passenger states that many of the citizens of the adjoining country had given notice to the Mormons that if they caught them, and they did not go by Saturday, they would be driven off. The Mormons [illegible] expelling every one who came from their opponents, which they resisted, or about equally strong with the Mormons. [illegible] places of our informant, [illegible] dreaded a conflict, and [illegible] nothing serious would result from the excitement. Republican.

BOND AND NAYLOR. The Philadelphia Star says, that the Maine Age, a locofoco paper alleges that the Whig editor of the Kennebec Journal has started for Boston with a sloop load of Bond's and Naylor's speeches. A formidable battery is that of the sloop, for the "long low black schooner" of locofocoism. The latter will take care not to approach her within shooting distance.

The Globe looks very sad upon the loss of Georgia. It will come rather hard too to have to whistle back all its shouts about New Jersey.

The great Loco Foco victory in Pennsylvania amounts to just this and no more the loss of both houses of the Legislature, and a popular majority cut down from 12,000 to 5,000.

Another Steamboat Lost. The steamboat Irene, ascending the Mississippi on Thursday night last, when about five miles above L'Anse, on the Upper Mississippi, run upon a snag which split her hull. The sunk immediately in about eight feet water. The hull, it is supposed, will be a total loss; the engine and most of the cargo will be saved, but all articles liable to injury from the water will be more or less damaged. Her cargo consisted chiefly of merchandize, and was quite large, only about $10,000 of which, we are told, was insured. The boat was insured in the Missouri and Union Insurance offices at $15.00.

This is the third heavy loss sustained by the owners and Insurance offices in less than two weeks. The losses to the Insurance offices on the Rolla, Governor Dodge and Irene amount, exclusive of the risks on the cargoes, to about $46,500. The low state of the water has greatly increased the dangers of navigation on all the lower Mississippi when the stumps or snags cut off by the snag boats, and which generally are not perceivable on the surface, are calculated to do serious injury.

A DAY ON LAKE ERIE.

I descended to the engine deck. A small circle of listeners had gathered around a tall old gentleman, in whom I immediately recognized a fellow-sufferer during a long day's travel over corduroy roads, in one of the abominations called Kalamazoo stages. He signed himself Colonel in the hotel register, and had been politically conspicuous for several years. Taking my arm he proposed a stroll about the boat. He seemed acquainted with the majority of our fellow passengers, their occupations and pursuits; and he depicted their peculiarities with graphic brevity and force.

"That pale, thin young man, is a Philadelphian. He was well educated, and the blossom of his life promised golden fruits. Misfortune, partly the effects of his own imprudence, reduced him to poverty; he went to the far west, and passed two miserable years in the district of the mines. He worked on the soil with his own hands, like the humblest laborer, and after many fruitless designs, he had at last the fortune to strike upon a lode of metal, as it is called, of considerable value. He will be very rich. He is now journeying to rechristen his betrothed from indifference, and as if the girl of his affections has passed into a stranger. His patient labor at C[illegible] has obliterated the habits of his former life, and he deserves to be happy; but his hectic cough, and attenuated form, tell of consumption, and I fear he will never reach home.

"That bearded man in a Boston wrapper, who paid double fare for the luxury of a state-room, is all alone, and [illegible] upon recognizing in him one of the [illegible] of several [illegible] that man [illegible] to [illegible] his lake, six years ago, [illegible] of his [illegible] rock-et. The captain put him ashore at Cleaveland; he worked on [illegible] tery and opened a log house for the sale of rum, and made several hundred dollars in a short time. He then progressed across the Peninsula to the shores of Lake Michigan, and fixed his grog shop shanty in a swamp at the mouth of one of the rivers. An appropriation was made by Congress to form a harbor there—the rum-seller walked to the land-office, and entered fifteen hundred acres of the locality at the Government price. He is now worth half a million of money.

"That is an English farmer, I saw him yesterday at the land office, to secure a portion of the public domain which had pleased his fancy. His wife and children, and two brothers, were left at New York; he had been on a tour of observation, and now returns to fetch them to his location; in a few weeks they will be settled in the bosom of the wilderness. I saw him jump aboard the boat in the morning, with the elastic spring of hope and joy. He came forth a dove-like messenger in search of land, and now returns with glad tidings and ardent hopes of rich success. One such emigrant is worth a dozen of the idle skulking knaves who crowd our ca board, and [illegible] in laziness and rags.

"That good looking man, with a large breast-pin, and chain of gold conspicuously displayed across his breast, is a blackleg of the vilest class. He is insinuating himself into the society of those young men for the purpose of making up a card party, when the work of plunder will commence. He has a scar upon his left hand.

I will tell you how it was gained. He was travelling down the Mississippi, he [illegible] with some Southerners, and succeeded in provoking them to gamble. One of them soon became a heavy loser, he suspected foul play, and narrowly watched the stranger's conduct. He soon discovered that the blackleg secreted the winning cards of the pack, and produced them at his pleasure. The Southerner had lost heavily—more indeed than he could afford when he saw the end of a card peeping out from beneath the other's outstretched hand, that was lying flat on the table. He drew his spring-back dirk from his pocket, and with one jerk, drove it through the hand of the gambler, deep into the top of the table. He was compelled to remain, nailed to the place, with the evidence of his villany perfectly visible, till every body on board of the boat had been invited to look at him that they might know and avoid him for the future. All his winnings were taken from him, and he was put ashore at the first wooding place. But the unblushing scoundrel is at his dirty work again, as if no such exposure had ever occurred."

A boy, about six years of age, was clambering up the netting of the bulwarks. His mother called him to her by the name of Ahasuerus. The frequent repetition of this strange word excited much attention and drew the following remarks from the Colonel:

"The rage for out-of-the-way names is peculiar, I belive, to our country—though we may not rival the Spanish in the multiplicity of the applications bestowed upon an individual. Many of our sponsorial titles are absurd. You have doubtless heard of the poor woman who had her infant christened Belzebub because it was scripture name. I knew a man who swore an oath that his first child should be named Thomas Jefferson of course—he calculated on having a boy; but his first born was a female. He kept his oath; and the lady owning that masculine denomination is still alive. An eccentric auctioneer at New Orleans, christened his twin daughters Ibid and Ditto; and a gentleman by the name of Stickney, now living upon the banks of the Miami, has designated his children in numerical rotation, commencing with his first-born, as One Stickney, Two Stickney, and so on, up to the infant who is called Five-Stickney. No other name or distinguishing mark is affixed to male or female."

A well-dressed youth was parading the deck with an air of self-satisfaction, and amusing himself by poking a large silver took-prick into his mouth. His arrogant bearing offended the Colonel's ideas of propriety, and he seized the arm of the youth with such a jerk, that the dandy's hand nearly followed the tooth-prick down his throat. "Young man, if your mother's sugar plums have rotted your teeth, and you must pick them, go below and get a quill of the steward; or beg a pen from the clerk, and cut it into the required shape. Use it privately. To clean your teeth in public is a sign of vulgarity but to torment your gums with a metal spike, when you can treat them to the softness of a quill, is sheer stupidity."

The young fellow stared, and said nothing; but he put his tooth-pick in his pocket.

The sun was setting with a splendor and a glory unequalled even in 'the golden skies of fair Italia's.' Masses of clouds assumed every possible variety of wondrous form and gorgeous tint. Dark and mountainous appearances in the forepart, faded in the centre, to a clear and sun-lit distance. Rocky steeps and castellated crags frowned over an extensive valley of inconceivable loveliness, and streams of shining silver meandered through the purple and yellow fields. It was a most remarkable combination of effect, and elicited general surprise and admiration. The whole of the passengers collected on the after part of the deck, and when the first expression of delight had passed away, they gazed in silence upon this striking developement of the beauties of nature!

One of the passengers, a stout farmer-looking man, with his wife and daughter hanging on his arms, took off his hat, and said in a loud tone "These are thy works, Parent of good! The heavens declare thy glory, Lord, and the firmament proclaims thy handiwork. Blessed be the name of the Lord God!"

These opposite quotations forcibly struck the minds of the standers-by; and, with one accord the hats of the male passengers were removed from their heads. A holy feeling of reverential awe pervaded our bosoms as we looked through nature up to nature's God!

A thin cadaverous-looking fellow took a hymn book from his pocket, and in a snuffling tone, requested his brethren to assist him in improving the occasion. He mounted the top of the rudder-post, and gave out two lines of a hymn in a canting drawling manner, and led off the singing at the top of his voice. One or two of the friends joined in the discord, but the rest put on their hats, and turned jeeringly away.

"There," said my friend, the colonel, "you may note the difference between the effects of genuine impulsive piety, and the second-hand cant of the Pharisees—the outward spiritual sign, and the inward spiritual grace. The right-conscrver-much thrusts his worldly sanality down your throat in disagreeable doses—but the voice of pure religion emanates from the heart, and is sure to find a responsive chord."

Seeing for [illegible] ing himself in conversation [illegible] with the foreman. "There, there sarch singers [illegible] down the Mississippi; they were real singers and [illegible] they stole a [illegible] from the Arkansas [illegible] and [illegible] all day, and [illegible] a nigger at night. They got catched in [illegible] and lynched right away, and [illegible] had not escaped, I should a been lynched for keeping bad company."

The old colonel bade me farewell, and [illegible] the effects of the night breeze on the [illegible] retired to his berth. The lights of Cleaveland [illegible] my port of destination, soon appeared in view. I selected my portmanteau from the general [illegible] of baggage; and while enquiring for a porter saw a police-officer busily engaged in handcuffing the psalm singer. The constable had been sometime on the watch for his victim, who was a principal agent of the western gang of counterfeiters.

REAL LIFE. Enter Husband from Work. "Well wife—has the paper come yet?" "No husband, and the bill came with it the one year's subscription." "Ahem!—Well what kind of a paper have we got this week, hey, pretty interesting any thing new?" "Why! yes, just a glance at our paper! It's chock full of shocking accidents, elopements, robberies, and murders, and suicides, and homicides, and parricides, and—besides there is a good love story on the 3d page and a lot of deaths and marriages! I read it through and through—shall I go and fetch it for you?" "Yes." "Husband, a [illegible] important item in the paper, wife I'll sit right down and forward the money; and then I'll read the paper!"

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS

Doctor Sangrado's system still Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system lives indeed live still and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a visionary fool The immaculate Faculty! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid matter and foreign substances in the body by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take

Brandreths Pills concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They own no after sad alloy,
They often save but never destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER,

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood," Levitticus chapter xvii v 11 When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could possibly have done and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation, whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine, the body is indeed lightened of a load Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury but always good Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard Is it tumultuous showing nervous excitement? the Pills by soothing the system will allay it

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr B who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year, and whose constitutions in consequence were becoming weaker and weaker, but who since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation Those sensible people simply by the use of these invaluable Pills are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind which by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired

The following cases of cure by the use of Brandreths Pills alone are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public

ASTHMA CURED The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich Ct, deserves by all persons, a careful perusal The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine

This is to certify that Thomas S Brown of Greenwich Ct was taken with a cold, numb feeling in the fall of the last Fall He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty four hours at out two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated Three physicians in Stamford Greenwich and Sawpit pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma and after prescribing for some time to no effect the three consulted together and finally declared that they could do him no good, it would and must result in consumption and death would ensue and that in a very short time The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation He was reduced to a mere skeleton and finally gave himself up to death After being in this miserable state nearly two months he saw an advertisement of Dr Brandreths Vegetable Universal Pills and immediately sent by Capt J Waring of Greenwich for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable

Signed Greenwich 22d Feb 1836.

To Dr Benj Brandreth

My dear Sir I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system attended with frequent pain and severe cholics, for the year I have also been subject to fits which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself I have been as weak as a child I am ready to state the facts more particularly and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence, No 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully

A VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

The whole of the PHIPSBURGH ESTATE, situated in Centre Clearfield, and Cambria Counties, in the State of Pennsylvania, with all the improvements thereon, is now offered for sale

THIS Estate comprises about SEVENTY THOUSAND ACRES of Land VERY HEAVILY TIMBERED and in the HEART of the BITUMINOUS COAL FIELD, upon which there are already established a FORGE for the manufacture of bar iron with all the necessary appendages An efficient and well constructed SAW MILL a SCREW FACTORY with improved machinery at which wood screws of all sizes are manufactured A ROLLING MILL for the rolling of blooms into round rods for wire drawing, with AIR FURNACE for heating the blooms An ANNEALING HOUSE a BUILDING with a FURNACE and MACHINE for heading rail road screws A PATTERN HOUSE containing numerous patterns for casting machinery A CUPOLA FURNACE, where the machinery of the screw factory is cast, and an extensive country business carried on A BUILDING containing a TILT-HAMMER and SHEARS for cutting iron A MANAGERS HOUSE & OFFICE and BOARDING HOUSE for workmen A valuable GRIST MILL worked by steam power

Also the PROPRIETORS HOUSE beautifully situated, seventy six feet in front with spacious piazzas front and rear, and possessing every convenience calculated for a gentleman's residence A LARGE AND SUBSTANTIALLY BUILT BRICK HOTEL in the town, with all the requisite out buildings A WELL BUILT STONE HOUSE, forty-two by twenty four feet with the land adjoining A LARGE STORE HOUSE calculated for an extensive country business FIVE COTTAGES in the village with gardens attached A FARM HOUSE with a spacious and well constructed Barn Granary &c Ice Buildings, and one hundred and fifty acres of highly cultivated meadow land adjoining The whole estate is abundantly supplied with springs of excellent water and water powers sufficient for saw mills, grist mills forges furnaces &c It is situated on the Moshannon and Clearfield Creeks, about ten miles from the river Susquehanna on the north to which the Moshannon and Clearfield Creeks afford navigable outlets in time of freshets and about twenty five miles from the PENNSYLVANIA CANAL on the southeast to which a highly favorable route is presented for the construction of a Rail Road to the JUNIATA DIVISION of the Pennsylvania Canal through a portion of Huntington County, abounding in IRON ORE, of the finest quality where a number of forges and furnaces have been long established but which are laboring under difficulties from the WANT OF THIS COAL A charter has been obtained for the construction of the rail road, THE LOCATION OF WHICH IS COMPLETED, and the estimates furnished in preparatory to a commencement of the work The distance from the COAL MINES to the CANAL is only twenty eight miles

The MAGNIFICENT TIMBER upon this estate consists of all the varieties usually found in Pennsylvania but the WHITE PINE which is NOW PARTICULARLY ABUNDANT is of the largest description fit for MASTS SPARS PANNEL BOARDS &c and of an EXCELLENT QUALITY. The BITUMINOUS COAL is found in every hill, in veins of various thickness, viz four feet two inches six feet and nine feet and there are two three or four veins in a hill according to its elevation The quality varies in different situations FROM THE HIGHLY BITUMINOUS SOFT COAL CLOSELY RESEMBLING the NEWCASTLE COAL OF ENGLAND, to a much harder and heavier Coal containing less bitumen LIME STONE FIRE CLAY and IRON STONE have been discovered accompanying some of the measures, and will doubtless be found to be general upon a proper examination A HIGHLY FAVORABLE CHARTER has been granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania containing MINING MANUFACTURING and TRANSPORTING PRIVILEGES for a period of SIXTY YEARS authorizing a company to hold this estate in a corporate capacity, and to convey to market its vast resources

Family circumstances however having occurred to prevent the proprietor from individually accomplishing this important enterprise he would be willing to sell ON LIBERAL TERMS, the whole property to a respectable company who would carry out the provisions of the charter, to whom of course he would transfer all its privileges or he would sell the estate in tracts, to suit the convenience of purchasers

The title to this Estate is INDISPUTABLE, and the SALUBRITY of the CLIMATE is proverbial Taking into consideration therefore, the immense quantity of the HEAVY and VALUABLE TIMBER upon this estate the presence of IRON ORE, the INEXHAUSTIBLE supplies of BITUMINOUS COAL, so essential in the GENERATION OF STEAM, the PRODUCTION of GAS and for domestic purposes and the arts in general the ADVANTAGEOUS POSITION, with regard to its communication with the SEA BOARD its IMMEDIATE PROXIMITY to a region ABOUNDING in the RICHEST IRON ORE, in which the WANT of FUEL is already productive of serious inconvenience, considering also, the highly favorable location of the rail road intersecting the Pennsylvania canal and thus affording the choice of both the Eastern and Western markets, and taking into view the many HOUSES BUILDINGS, MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENTS CLEARED and CULTIVATED LAND, thus enabling the enterprising company to commence their operations, without incurring the HEAVY EXPENDITURE of money, and the DELAY incident to new establishments, it is confidently believed that a rare opportunity is now presented for the SAFE and PROFITABLE investment of capital

For further particulars application may be made either personally or by letter POST PAID, to Samuel Carp, Esq New York John C. Montgomery, Esq. Philadelphia John Norris, Esq. Brown's Mills, Mifflin county, Pennsylvania
